Mr C. H. Kaufman
Dear Sir:

Thanks
to your kind efforts the paintings of the Cat and the Towers at the Corcoran Gallery of Art have been lowered for my benefit. I hope it will be your good fortune to often feel such pleasure as I experienced when I saw it descend. It has been placed on an easel in a good light - where I shall work on it as faithfully and as fast as I am able, and hope that you will find when my copy comes before you for final examination

that your kindness has not been thrown away.
If you could see my canvas and know how hard I have worked to finish it as nearly as I have, you would know how sincerely
I can sign myself -

Gratefully yours

About Miss Elwell.

I could lend Miss Ellen - or borrow for her - She is absolutely dependent on her own exertions - a lady by birth - and an earnest student - such a one as dear Mr Corcoran would love to help - were he still with us. She could easily enlarge her class - if she had proper facilities -

Yours very cordially

Dear Sir -

Your very kind letter of the 14th has wanted an answer only because I did not have an opportunity of seeing Miss Elliott until today. She has taught ^{not arith- but arithmetic} for two hours daily, in a boys school averaging 40 scholars for eight years. Although she is truly about 27 years of age - but her own private school has only been organized in the last two years. In connection with this she has a class, meeting in the afternoon, for study art, - numbering about twenty - Her scholars are mostly young girls who are studying with a view of becoming teachers themselves very few of them pay her anything - For the two years they have devoted themselves to the study of the history and theory of art - using the books on the subject.

My dear Sir

I thank you for conveying to me the acceptance of my offer to present to the Corcoran gallery of Art, the portrait Mr Stone. It will be forwarded by express (pre-paid) in a day or two - When it arrives I will thank you for a line to say it came in good order.

On the back you will find the inscription - Horatio Stone - 1810-1875. C. L. Elliott, 1845 - This was on the back of the old canvas (in Elliott's hand) when I had the picture relined I had it, the inscription transferred. With best wishes for your noble institution. I remain Ever sincerely yours
Mr Jas. C. Welling Saml. P. Avery.

The Board of Managers
Corcoran Art Gallery
Gentlemen:

My command lost by Fire on Thursday evening the 16th inst., a very handsome Crayon, of the late W. W.
Corcoran, valued at $75.⁰⁰, and other goods to the amount of $1000.⁰⁰. Being named after this distinguished gentleman, and wishing to have a Crayon, or portrait of some kind, of him in our Armory, after being refitted, I would like to know if you can not in some way get us one, I assure you it would be a great help to us, as we will have to spend all the money on hand for repairs

Mr Corcoran made a present to us the photograph from which we had our Crayon taken and of course looked upon it with much pride, the handsome gilt frame is black and the portrait yellow from smoke and water. Hoping this will meet with

Mr. B. Ogle Taylor,

My dear Sir,

Your request for information in regard to my uncle the Sculptor reaches us through our Cousin Doctor Frank Galh. I enclose almost an exact copy of a sketch made at the earnest request of a gentleman in South Carolina a few weeks ago. I am afraid that it is not just what you want. I have dwelt on some points as he especially asked for information on them. This gentleman asked who were my uncle's friends in Richmond. I learn from old letters and from my father that his particular friends were Mr. Gustavus Myers, Mr. Allen, Mr.

McFarland, Mr. David Walker, General Joseph R. Anderson and others. I cannot imagine why he wanted to know. I think nearly all of them are dead.

After you have finished with the sketch I shall be greatly obliged to you if you will return it to me - I am very sorry that it is not better - I have not the pen of a ready writer - and only try because if I do not - it will not be done at all -

Very Truly,

Mary J. Galt.
